CAPTAIN DANIEL J. SENESKY, USN

Commanding Officer, Tulane Naval ROTC Unit

Captain Senesky hails from Belleville, NJ. He received his commission from the Pennsylvania State University NROTC program in 1991, after earning a Bachelor of Arts degree in Broadcasting. Upon graduation, he attended Surface Warfare Officers School in Coronado, CA. He also earned a Master of Arts in International Relations from Salve Regina University in 1999.

His afloat assignments include: USS Pyro (AE 24) as the Boilers and Machinery Division Officer, USS Carl Vinson (CVN 70) as the OI Division Officer, USS Fitzgerald (DDG 62) as the Operations Officer, COMDESRON Two Three (CDS 23) as the Operations Officer, USS Higgins (DDG 76) as the Executive Officer, and USS Gary (FFG 51) as the Commanding Officer.

His assignments ashore include: Surface Warfare Officers School (SWOS) as a Combat Systems instructor, Commander Naval Surface Forces (CNSF) as the Training Innovation Officer, Chief of Naval Operations Surface Warfare Directorate (OPNAV N86) as the Head of the Air and Missile Defense Section, United States Central Command Headquarters Operations Plans Division (CENTCOM J3P) as the head of the Central Gulf Branch, and Chief of Naval Operations Strategic Actions Group (OPNAV N00Z) as a member of the Navy Asia-Pacific Advisory Group. He most recently served as the Commanding Officer of Joint Expeditionary Base Little Creek-Fort Story.

His personal awards include the Defense Superior Service Medal, Legion of Merit with one gold star, Meritorious Service Medal with two gold stars, Navy-Marine Corps Commendation Medal with four gold stars, and the Joint Service Achievement Medal.

Commissioning Oath of Office

I do solemnly swear that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter, so help me God.
